

1. Policy Statement

The Jazz Music Institute (“JMI”) understands that unforeseen circumstances may necessitate temporary interruption to a student’s study. To accommodate this, a student may apply to JMI for a leave of absence or may withdraw from a unit or program of study.

2. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to provide students with a consistent approach for applying for Leave of Absence or Withdrawal from a unit of study and/or their program of study.

3. Scope

This policy applies to:

- A student who is enrolled in a study program at JMI and seeks to withdraw or take a leave of absence from their program of study
- JMI staff who administers student withdrawals and leave of absences.

4. Policy Details

4.1 Leave of Absence

Any student may apply for leave of absence (LOA) provided one full year of study has been undertaken by the student requesting the leave of absence. Where a student has not completed one full year of study the student will discuss alternative options with the Chief Executive Officer.

LOA may be granted for up to one academic year at the discretion of the Chief Executive Officer. Each application will be treated on its merits and will depend on the student’s academic history and reasons for the application. It is not an automatic entitlement. Where a student is granted a LOA during a semester, financial and academic penalties may still apply.

A student who is granted LOA must hand back their student ID card and their building access card. A student who is granted LOA must also notify JMI of their intention to recommence the program of study at least two months prior to the commencement of classes or their place may be lost, and the student may be required to reapply for admission to the program.

4.2 Withdrawal

Withdrawal from a program of study

Any student who wishes to discontinue their studies must formally withdraw from their program of study regardless of the period of time in which they have been enrolled at JMI. The student must write to the Chief Executive Officer stating that they are withdrawing from the course. The student must also return their student ID card and building access card to formally withdraw from the course.

Withdrawing students may reapply for entry back into their chosen program of study at a later date, however there is no obligation on the part of JMI to reinstate any student that has withdrawn.

If an overseas student is applying for re-entry into a program of study, he/she is subject to any relevant immigration restrictions that may apply. Any such re-application will be considered through the normal application processes.

A student withdrawing from a program of study must also withdraw from any units of study they are enrolled in.

Withdrawal from a unit of study

A student seeking to withdraw from a unit of study must complete a Withdrawal from a unit of study form and submit to the Chief Executive Officer.

Financial Penalty

A student withdrawing from a unit of study must do so before the census date to avoid financial penalty. A student will incur the fees for the unit of study if they do not formally withdraw from the subject prior to the census date.

Academic Penalty

A student can withdraw after the census date and not incur an academic penalty if they formally withdraw from the unit of study prior to the academic penalty date. If a student withdraws prior to the academic penalty date they will receive a “Withdrawn” on their academic transcript and the unit of study will not count towards their Grade Point Average. If a student withdraws after the academic penalty date, they will receive a grade of “Withdrawn – Fail” on their academic transcript and the unit of study will count towards their Grade Point Average the same as a fail grade.

A student may be allowed to withdraw without academic penalty if special consideration is given in writing by the Chief Executive Officer.

Where a student has completed all of the assessment required for a unit a withdrawal will not override a fail grade and academic penalty will be incurred in such instances.

A student may appeal a decision in relation to their results status.

Late Withdrawal

Late withdrawal from a course may be granted if serious and unforeseen circumstances make it impossible for the student to complete classes for the remainder of the semester. Special consideration under such circumstances is to be approved by the Chief Executive Officer.

Inactive Withdrawal

Any student that does not return for commencement of the classes in which they are enrolled, will be reported for cessation of studies.

4.3 Refunds

Students who formally withdraw or are granted Leave of Absence after the Census Date will remain liable for fees pertaining to all units of study in which they were enrolled for the current teaching period including FEE-HELP debts.

International students who are permitted to withdraw are subject to the refund policy contained in their agreement with the JMI.

For more information please refer to the Refunds Policy.

4.4 International Students

Overseas students studying on a student visa may only suspend studies on the grounds of compassionate and compelling circumstances (eg illness or injury where a medical certificate states that the student is unable to attend classes; evidence of a traumatic experience, bereavement of an immediate family member, care for immediate family member with illness or terminally ill, delay in receiving student visa). Supporting documentation must accompany the application. Overseas students cannot suspend their studies for a holiday or if they feel they need a break from study.

Student Leave of Absence & Withdrawal Policy

Overseas students on a student visa who require an absence of more than 6 months must withdraw from the program.

Overseas students on a student visa suspending or cancelling enrolment may affect his or her student visa.
