

Admissions Decisions

Decisions on auditions are made by an audition panel comprised of key academic personnel at JMI. Decisions will be made in accordance with JMI's Equity, Diversity and Fairness Policy and JMI's Admissions Policy which are available on the Academic Policies page of JMI's website.

There is an expected 4-week turnaround from when an applicant performs and audition to when they find out their audition results. Applicants will be notified via e-mail of their results unless otherwise notified or requested.

Admissions information for different applicant backgrounds

Applicants with recent secondary education (within the past two years)

To gain entry into this course, applicants will need to undertake an audition as per the audition requirements set out for this course. Only applicants deemed successful by the audition panel will be granted an offer to enter this course.

Applicants do not require an ATAR score to gain entry into this course.

Applicants with vocational education and training (VET) study

To gain entry into this course, applicants will need to undertake an audition as per the audition requirements set out for this course. Only applicants deemed successful by the audition panel will be granted an offer to enter this course.

Applicants that have previously undertaken VET study will be eligible for Advanced Standing through the audition process. Applicants looking to gain advanced standing (credit) for previous study will need to bring all documentation of their prior study along in their audition.

An assessment will be made by the audition panel on whether the applicant will be made an offer for the course and how much credit (if any) they can receive for their previous study. This assessment will take into account both the performance ability of the applicant and the knowledge gained from previous study as per JMI's Credit Transfer and Recognition of Prior Learning Policy available on JMI's Academic Policies page.
